"...the decision should be made between the patient and his or her physician."

"I'm astonished that our fundamental rights as women are still under assault..."

"...we will never allow for the rights of women to be rolled back."

"We set aside all of our personal beliefs and opinions and preferences, and we simply apply the law."

"You apply the law and you come to the conclusion the law requires whether you like it or not."

"Our responsibility is to apply all of the terms of the Constitution with neither fear nor favor for any party."

"It is our responsibility not to have issues...We don't have causes that we champion in the court..."

"We don't make up the law. We don't ignore the law. We don't play favorites with the law."

"I think it's important for the people to understand that we do nothing but impartially apply the law without respect to any outside influences or anything that would affect me personally."

"I'm not exercising my personal politics and beliefs when it comes to my conclusions."

"A radical minority thinks the Constitution should bend to their will"

"I will advocate for social justice issues..."

"[The right wing] is going to continue to influence this election. They are going to continue to bring lots and lots of money into this race..."

"I think it's important for the people to understand that we do nothing but impartially apply the law without respect to any outside influences or anything that would affect me personally."

"I'm not exercising my personal politics and beliefs when it comes to my conclusions."
